

Immediate Opening for Seattle Attorney

Code Publishing Company is the largest woman-owned legal publishing company in the US, is located in Seattle, WA, and has grown to serve hundreds of customers and thousands of subscribers nationwide. We codify and publish codes of ordinances for cities, counties, towns, villages, and water districts in over 21 states.

We have an immediate opening for an attorney with strong research and writing skills and experience in municipal law, land use, and constitutional law. An English degree and/or a marketing, sales and business background would be a plus. This is a part-time position preferably on a contract basis.

No calls or drop ins; please submit an electronic resume and a letter of interest to mbustion@codepublishing.com. Qualified applicants will be contacted, asked to prepare a writing sample, and scheduled for an interview. Interviews will be conducted the week of January 23rd, 2012.
