

Lateral Attorney Position

Introduction

Anderson Hunter is a downtown Everett law firm that has been serving municipal and business clients for nearly 100 years. The firm is seeking attorneys with at least three years' experience who have the desire to focus in (1) municipal law and (2) employment law and/or real estate law.

Information about Anderson Hunter

Anderson Hunter is widely respected for its representation of businesses and municipalities. We have a collegial environment firmly rooted in the Snohomish County community. With a historic downtown, a waterfront under development, good schools, and a constantly growing business base, Everett is a fantastic place to settle one's career and family.

Qualifications

The Firm is seeking attorneys with at least three years' experience who have the desire to focus in business, real estate, municipal, and/or litigation. This is a perfect opportunity for a confident, self-motivated attorney looking to make a change. The ideal candidate will also have a long-term interest in Snohomish County.

Salary and Benefits

Salary will depend on experience and may be based on a flat amount, revenues, or a combination of both. Expected compensation range is between $100,000 and $200,000 and is based on a revenue sharing structure. Benefits include health insurance, health HAS, 401(k), life insurance, bar dues, and CLEs. A hybrid work model will be considered.

Other Information

This position is open until filled. This position is a Fair Labor Standards Act exempt position. Anderson Hunter does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation (including gender identity and/or expression), pregnancy, national origin, age, disability, veteran status or any other factor prohibited by law.

To Apply:

Submit cover letter, resume, and writing sample to Office Manager Angela Stahl at astahl@andersonhunterlaw.com and Hiring Shareholder Jordan Stephens at jstephens@andersonhunterlaw.com.